

Guide for General Practice: Learning Modules

Dates: 28th May, 11th June and 25th June 2026
7:30pm - 8:30pm AEST

Strengthen your practice with a new three-part webinar series from NAATSIHWP based on the RACGP Endorsed Resource Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander Health Workers and Health Practitioners in Primary Health Care - A Guide for General Practice.

This series supports GPs, practice managers, and primary care teams to strengthen their understanding of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Worker and Health Practitioner workforce and their critical role in delivering culturally safe, high quality primary health care.

Participants will gain a clearer understanding of scope of practice, employment and funding arrangements, and the structural and cultural factors that influence workforce sustainability.
